

Are you an artist?
... a musician?
... a writer?

Get connected to Northumberland's vibrant arts and culture community by joining the Arts Council of Northumberland - today!

The Arts Council of Northumberland's membership consists of over 80 organizations, representing every facet of cultural activity in Northumberland County, as well as a growing list of individual artists. Our goal is to enhance communications within the arts, culture and heritage organizations located in the County of Northumberland.

As an Individual Artist in the ACN you will enjoy all the following benefits:

Our Website

As an individual artist, you will be given your own personal web page on our website, www.northumberlandarts.ca. Our number of unique website visitors is growing at an amazing rate of 12% a month. You can post your bio, statement, examples of your work, or links to other sites – all for free.

Our Event Calendar

Your events also will be listed on our website in our online monthly calendar for free. This popular calendar of arts, culture and heritage events taking place throughout the County allows visitors to look through our wealth of theatre, music, visual arts, literary arts, film, craft, heritage and community offerings.

Our Newsletter

You are invited to sign up for a subscription to our weekly online Northumberland Arts Newsletter and have the latest news and reviews delivered to your email inbox. The newsletter is distributed to over 500 supporters of the arts, and that number is increasing daily. As a member, your events will also be promoted in this newsletter for free.

Our Blog

You are also welcome to participate in online discussions of Northumberland Arts and Arts issues, and learn more about artists, performances, reviews, and general arts news at artsnorthumberland.blogspot.com, which is our online Northumberland Arts blog. You can also publicize your events on the blog for free.

Our Organization

As a member, you are welcome to attend our Annual General Meeting in December, where you will automatically be a voting member. You will also make valuable contacts in the local arts and culture community.

Interested in joining the ACN?

There are three levels of membership: Individual Artist ($20), Friend of the Arts ($20), and Organizations ($30).

As an Individual Artist, please complete the Application Form (available on our website), and mail it, together with your web page information and cheque payable to "Arts Council of Northumberland", to:
